Indianapolis Medical Society Approval Policy: All advertising must be approved by the publisher. IMS reserves the right to refuse any advertisement. Advertiser and his agency will indemnify, defend and hold harmless the publisher from any claim and all loss, expense or liability arising out of the publication of any advertising copy. Publication of advertising by the IMS does not imply endorsement or approval. The liability of the publisher for any error or omission or delay for which it may be held legally responsible, shall in no event exceed the cost of the space paid for and occupied by such individual advertisement.

Board Certification Policy: IMS publishes board certifications approved by the American Board of Medical Specialties, American Osteopathic Association, and Royal College of Surgeons. Physician members wishing to designate an area of special interest in which their boards are not ABMS-, AOA-, or RCS-approved may use the following wording: "Specializing in"
*Classified advertisements are published as a service to members of the Indianapolis Medical Society. Ads determined by the editorial staff to be advantageous to members will be accepted. Advertisements of a truly commercial nature (i.e., firms selling brand products, services, etc.) will be considered for display ads in the Bulletin & on the website. Advertisements for employment containing specifications as to race, creed, color, age, religion, sex, ethnic origin or national origin may be unlawful and professionally improper. Accordingly, discriminatory wording is not acceptable to the IMS. In such a case, the IMS will modify the wording and notify the advertiser of the change before publication. All orders must be in writing, accompanied by payment in advance for the first month's insertion. Include how many months you wish the ad to run. Invoices are due upon receipt. Invoices that remain unpaid for 30 days shall accrue interest at a rate of 18% per annum. Should

The IMS be forced to retain attorneys to collect all or any portion, of our invoices, such fees and court costs that may be reasonable and necessary, as well as any accrued interest charge, will be paid by the advertiser or their agent.
