The Indianapolis Medical Society website is designed to inform Indianapolis area physicians, their office staffs, the medical community and the public of upcoming events, news, member activities, physician locators, legislation and events affecting medicine, and more. Now you can advertise your business on the Indianapolis Medical Society website. All display ads are in pixels. Ads must be "static" and use web safe colors -- RGB or Hex. Ads rotate randomly in the Physician Finder. 10 % Non-profit discounts available (IRS verified)
